Nangwarry PS Code of Conduct and Behavioural Agreement - 2012

AT OUR SCHOOL WE BELIEVE:

- Students and Staff with Community have the right to be in safe, caring and successful learning and teaching environments that are free of any harassment, bullying or discrimination.
- All people have a responsibility to ensure everybody's right to:
 - be safe
 - be treated fairly
 - be supported in doing their best as a learner, staff member or volunteer
- Our Conduct Code is a partnership between Students, Staff, Families and Community Members and links with departmental guidelines for universal Wellbeing
- Every individual is responsible for their own thinking and behaviours
- Site Anti –Bullying, Child Protection, Grievance Process and Wellbeing Policies compliment this agreed Conduct Code.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF STUDENTS

Students have a right to fair and safe treatment, learning in environments free from harmful bullying or harassment.

Students also have a responsibility to:

- Be fair and honest
- Treat others well as they would like to be treated
- Listen politely to others, including other students, staff and parents
- Speak in a respectful tone of voice
- Act and move in safe ways
- Use good manners
- Keep hands off others' belongings and work
- Allow others their personal space
- Look with care and respect at others
- Give and seek help when needed
- Engage in fair resolution when a problem arises
- Be accountable for choices they make
- Take part in learning to develop their understanding of anti-bullying, anti harassment and laws relating to discrimination and exclusion
- Think positively, avoiding mean thoughts of others
